

Doug MacFarlane is a licensed funeral director who began his employment with the firm in the 1960's and in the early 70's left to work a thirty plus year career with the SC Highway Department. Upon his retirement he returned to work part-time with our firm. He and his wife, Sylvia are members of St. Luke's Episcopal Church.