

John Jackson "Bill" McSwain (October 27, 1927 - September 28, 2014) Bill was born in Newberry and was the son of the late Lee McSwain and Agnes McSwain Wallace founders of McSwain Funeral Home. He was a graduate of Newberry High School and the University of Minnesota. He retired in 1991 as manager of Bobo Funeral Home in Spartanburg. He and his wife the former Julia Boozer upon retirement relocated to Lake Murray and resided there until just prior to his death when they moved to Newberry. He was employed part-time with our firm as a licensed funeral director and embalmer for several years following his return to Newberry County. Bill was an active member of Aveleigh Presbyterian Church.
