

McSwain-Evans Funeral Home is a member and participate of the South Carolina Funeral Directors Association (SCFDA) which represents more than 500 firms, associates and affiliate members throughout the state of South Carolina. SCFDA encourages high standards of excellence and ethical practices within the funeral industry. They serve to enhance the role South Carolina funeral homes play by fostering relationships between funeral homes, the families they serve and their communities. If you have any questions you may contact the SCFDA at their web site.