

McSwain-Evans Funeral Home will notify the Social Security Administration when a death occurs as survivors may be entitled to certain benefits. These may include survivor benefits, Medicare benefits, and benefits for surviving minor children.

For further information, please contact the local Social Security Administration office at (866) 526-9854, the national office at (800) 772-1213, the Social Security Administration web site or McSwain-Evans Funeral Home.