

McSwain-Evans Funeral Home will gladly assist you with settlement of your insurance proceeds at the time of death. Choices include consignment of insurance proceeds to either the beneficiary or to the funeral home. Whichever choice you make, we will be happy to assist you with the necessary administrative processes.

If you desire to handle your own insurance redemption, please remember that a certified copy of the death certificate and a fully completed claim form are needed for each insurance company involved. If you have questions or need assistance in acquiring the necessary forms, please do not hesitate to call on us.
